The documents you will receive from us

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to clarify who we are and what we do, and help you decide whether to use our services.

To make things simple, this guide explains:

- the services and types of products we're able to offer you
- how we and our associates are paid and any other benefits we may receive
- any potential conflicts of interest we may have
- how we protect your privacy and handle your personal information
- how we resolve disputes, and what you should do if you have one.

Please read through the whole FSG, as it's full of useful information – and is also worth holding on to for future reference. And of course, if you ever have any questions, please contact us.

Other documents you may receive

In addition to this FSG, when we provide you financial advice we will also present you with a written Statement of Advice (SOA).

This will describe the strategies, products and services we recommend and outline any fees or commissions we will receive and any associations we have with financial product providers or other parties that have not already been disclosed in this FSG.

If you receive further financial advice from us, we will present you with either another SOA or keep our own written Record of Advice (ROA). You can request a copy of this by contacting us any time up to seven years from the date of the advice provided. Please refer to the "Contact us" section of this FSG for our contact details.

We will also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or offer document for all financial products we recommend, where applicable. This will outline the product in detail to help you make an informed decision about whether it is right for you.

Giving us instructions

If you want to make changes to your financial plan or provide other instructions, please contact us. Please refer to the "Contact us" section of this FSG for our contact details.

Generally, you will need to give us instructions in writing (eg fax, email or letter) or another method agreed with us.

How you can pay for our services

You can pay for the services you receive on a fee for advice basis. This allows you to know that you are paying for our advice irrespective of any product you use, clarifies the services you are entitled to, and ensures all recommendations are driven by your needs.

We will agree with you the amount you pay based upon:

- a flat dollar fee;
- an hourly rate;
- the amount you invest; or
- a combination of the above.

You can pay in the following ways:

- as a fee for advice that will be deducted from your investments as a one-off payment or in instalments;
- by direct invoice from us for initial and ongoing advice;
- via commission we may receive from a financial product provider when you commence an insurance contract; or
- a combination of the above.

If you are not already on a fee for advice package, you can move to this payment at any time.

Other payments we may receive

We will provide you with details of all fees, commissions or other benefits we may receive when we provide advice to you and, where possible, will give actual dollar amounts. If we cannot provide this accurately, we will provide worked-dollar examples.

Even if you don't receive personal financial advice from us, you can still request the details of any fees, commissions or other benefits we receive in relation to any other financial service we provide you.

Benefits we may receive

We are a passionately fee for advice practice and we strongly believe in eliminating potential conflict of interest wherever possible. To best serve your interests, we will not accept any remuneration from any source other than the fees for our service, as set out in the "How we charge for our services" section of this document.

Conferences

We may attend conferences and professional development seminars that have a genuine education or training purpose. Apogee Financial Planning or our employer, may pay for the costs of our travel and accommodation, and events and functions held in conjunction with the conference or seminar.

Non-monetary benefits

We keep a register detailing certain non-monetary benefits that we receive e.g. benefits valued between $100 and $300, and those that relate to genuine education or training and technology software or support.

You can view an extract of the register by contacting us. Please be aware that Apogee Financial Planning may charge you for the cost of providing this information to you.

Commissions received by our Licensee from product providers

Apogee Financial Planning has ongoing commission arrangements with a number of risk insurance providers. Where you acquire a risk insurance policy issued by AIA, Zurich, Colonial First State One Path and Macquarie the insurer may pay Apogee Financial Planning a commission payment which based on total in-force premium and lapse rates for risk insurance policies recommended by all advisers within Apogee Financial Planning adviser network. The payments received by Apogee Financial Planning may be up to 2% of the premium amounts paid by policy holders to the relevant insurer. As this amount is calculated in the future, we cannot provide an exact amount at this time; however, as an example, if as a result of services provided to you by Apogee Financial Planning, a participating insurance provider receives $5,000 in premium, then Apogee Financial Planning will receive up to $100 as a commission (2% of the premiums held).

The above payments are not shared with your adviser. These payments do not represent an additional charge to you and your adviser will disclose in your Statement of Advice insurance products for which these arrangements may apply

Referrals

If you have been referred to us or we refer you to someone else, we may have arrangements in place to or receive a referral fee, commission, or other benefit.

Details of any arrangement will be provided in our advice to you.

How we charge for our services

We are a passionately fee for advice practice and we strongly believe in eliminating potential conflict of interest wherever possible.

To best serve your interests, we will accept no remuneration from any source other than the fees for our service, as set out below. As we believe in transparency, all fees below are quoted inclusive of GST.

Initial Engagement

Our initial interactions focuses on understanding who you are and securing what is most important to you. We will initially discuss by telephone your main drivers for seeking financial advice, and how we are best able to assist.

We then arrange a face to face workshop which focuses on your personal values and how these link through to your life goals, and the financial resources required to achieve them. In order for you to achieve maximum benefit from the workshop, we invite you to send through your financial information for our review before we meet.

Your investment in the workshop will be between $550 - $2,200, which will be offset against future advice costs

Advice preparation

The cost of your advice will reflect the complexity of your needs and the quality and availability of information about your current position. As a guide, our advice fees are generally between $11,000 and $25,000.

The first 50% of this fee is payable once you engage us to proceed to prepare recommendations, with the balance payable when your recommendations are presented.

Ongoing fee for service

To obtain maximum benefit from your advice, we form a lasting partnership with you, ensuring that you remain on track to achieve your goals. The flat dollar fee for our on-going service will be determined by the complexity of your needs and the intensity of our relationship.

The ongoing service fee is collected monthly directly from investment portfolio or via credit card or direct debit. Generally our fees range from $1,000 to $5,000 per month.

Ad hoc advice

Where you do not wish to participate in an ongoing service fee arrangement but require ongoing advice on an ad hoc basis, an hourly fee of between $330 and $550 may apply

Stamping Fees

Where we receive stamping fees from issuer companies for raising capital or debt on behalf of that company, we will offset this payment against the cost of our advice to you.

Margin loans

We do not receive commissions either directly or indirectly from any margin lending products.

Insurance Products

We do not receive commissions either directly or indirectly from any life insurance products.

Notes:

- All commissions and fees are inclusive of GST.
- Fees could be greater than those disclosed above in complex cases. In these instances, we will inform you of the exact fee payable promptly in writing.
